Those present were Misses Howard, of Columbia, Daisy Murrell, Alberta Dabney, Dean Rankin, Lucy Humphrey, Lillie Goodloe, Artie M. Ransom, Lou Willie Goodloe, Elizabeth Currey, Mattie L. Ewing, Nannie Belcher, Messrs. James Watson, Dr. C. H. Watkins, Clarkus Bright, Augustus Goodloe, Westley Bitticks, Willie Strong, Burney Bright.

NEWS OF STATE.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Mrs. Nellie North, of Chattanooga, was the guest of Mrs. T. S. Williams Sunday at dinner.

The members of Key's Chapel surprised their pastor, Rev. B. F. Anderson, Thursday night with a storm party. Many gifts were received. At 10 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a two-course menu was served. Rev. A. J. Anderson delivered an address. Mr. Oldham Lindsey rendered a solo.

The Banner Club of Mt. Zion Baptist Church gave a fish fry last Wednesday.

Messrs. G. B. Brady, J. B. Sublett and Wm. Williams spent Tuesday in Nashville.

Mrs. Ellen Alexander has returned from Wartrace and Christiana.

Mr. Edmund Bryant spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Scales.

Miss Elma A. Williams was the guest of Mrs. J. B. Sublett Sunday at dinner.

The Ladies' Embroidery Club was delightfully entertained Saturday by their president, Mrs. J. B. Sublett. After the business meeting was over, the ladies passed into the dining room where a tempting menu, which included chicken salad, pickles, beaten biscuits, fruit, salad and vanilla wafers, was served.

Mrs. Dora Ledbetter is in Nashville.

Mr. Jim Mitchell was in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Miller was in the city Saturday.

Messrs. J. B. Sublett and Dan Alexander spent Sunday in the country.

The Blue Ribbon Club will have a fair at Mt. Zion Church on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. A. J. Anderson spent Sunday in Eagleville.

Mr. Mose Sneed, of Mount Pleasant, was in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Overall are going to New York to live.

Miss Idella Hatton was the guest of Miss Johnnie O'Neal and Kitty Brooks last Sunday.

The members of Allen Chapel are anticipating rendering "Queen Esther" at an early date.

EBENEZER NOTES.

A letter received from Mr. Baxter Jenkins, who is in Los Angeles, Cal., states that he has visited a number of business places, among them was a hotel entirely owned and controlled by colored people. Mr. Jenkins is a shrewd young man, and wherever he goes is well received.

Misses Ella Willis and Willie and Bessie Cockrill spent Wednesday night with Miss Mattie D. Walker.

Rev. G. L. Jackson was here all day Sunday and at seven o'clock he preached on the "Great Commission of Christians and Faith." Rev. Mr. Jackson gave the members and friends credit for their new stove and cleanliness of the church.

Mr. G. Redmond went to Rutherford County for the purpose of buying a farm. He has returned, and says prospects are fine.

Miss Willie Mai Upshaw has returned home from her summer school in Liberty, Tenn.

Mrs. Wm. Lusk, little Dorothy Jenkins and Nellie Buchanan, who have been sick, are much better.

CEMETERY NOTES.

Mr. John Hugel has just returned from Mt. Pleasant where he spent the summer.

The B. O. Society will give its annual festival at Stones River Chapel M. E. Church on Friday night.

The members of Stone River Chapel were glad to welcome their new pastor, Rev. L. W. Florer, who preached an able sermon Sunday morning.

Mr. James S. Quarles is recovering.

Mrs. Elizabeth Howse has begun building on her lot.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

In this city events seem to come in seasons. With the gradual passing of shows and carnivals and the advent of Indian summer, comes the era of fires. Last week silent and general alarms called out the fire department several times on spectacular runs, and at one blaze which threatened the destruction of several buildings of the Evergreen Floral Lodge, water was hard to get and at last when one stream was thrown a hearty cheer from the assembled crowd was given.

The ritualistic mysteries and ranks of page, esquire and knight were conferred last Tuesday night upon Frank Beaumont, Rev. P. J. Coleman, Ed. Christ, Geo. Hester, Sam Horton and Ira Weaver by the officers and members of the Twentieth Century Lodge Knights of Pythias.

The "Harvest Moon Musical" was given and a capable rendition before a large and appreciative audience at Elders Opera House last Thursday night for the benefit of the Mt. Olivet Cemetery, was the result. On Friday night at Buck's Hall under the same promoters a banquet was served. Quite COMMUNION SETS.

VESSELS WITH WHICH TO ADMINISTER THE LORD'S SUPPER.

THE most sacred ordinance that can be observed by all churches is that known as the Lord's Supper or, in other words, Sacrament. We do not think it is in keeping with these sacred ordinances of the Lord's Supper in church now-a-days to try to administer it with out the proper vessels.

Every Church Ought to Have a First-Class Communion Set.

They can have them made out of the best grade of quadruple-plated table silverware if they desire them. The Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board has just received from their factory a new lot of this high-class ware, and would take pains in showing them to any one.

The Prices are Within Reach of All and Terms are Reasonable.

No church ought to be willing to use glass dishes or the like for these ordinances when they can have the best grade of silver at moderate prices.

tained a host of friends in honor of her eighteenth birthday. Those present were Misses Laura Cantrell, Kittie Garrett, Martha Phillips, Rosie and Annie Hendricks, Mary Finch and Mary Hitt, Messrs. Rush Shelton, Arthur Cartwright, Willie Johnson, James Hendricks, Emmitt and Preston Cantrell and Dock Cartwright and Mr. Willie Franklin rendered the music. A two-course menu was served. She received a number of presents.

Rev. Mr. J. C. Russell visited us Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Crosswait is our new preacher.

Mrs. Susie Grinnard, of Evansville, Ind., is visiting here.

Miss Martha Phillips who will graduate in free school this term, has subscribed for the Globe for one month. And I hope after she reads it one month she will take a liking to it and subscribe for three months.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Shelbyville is still on a quiet, though effectual boom. Everybody is busy.

The new, handsome passenger depot is nearly complete. Concrete sidewalks are being built all over town. New churches, white and colored, are being built; and new comers are arriving almost daily.

Turner Normal Institute was graced with the presence of Rev. Sutton E. Griggs last Friday night. Rev. Griggs lectured to a packed house in the college chapel. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting of the National colors, and the college colors. Sweet music was rendered by the students. Rev. Griggs was entertained at the college building.

Dr. J. A. Jones visited his family in Nashville this week. He leaves Friday for Knoxville to attend the East Tennessee Conference.

The dormitory of Turner Institute is nearly filled to its capacity, and the president is now perplexed as to what to do with the usual mid-winter influx of students.

Rev. B. G. Gordan will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday night. He has done a wonderful work in his church this year.

Miss Mattie L. Barr, of Waverly, is among the recent arrivals at Turner Normal. She fills the position of Preceptress and Superintendent of the sewing department.

Scott's Chapel M. E. Church is progressing admirably under the pastorate of Rev. R. B. Ross. Bricks are already being laid on the foundation of the new church.

LAVERGNE NOTES.

On Friday afternoon the sad news was received here of the death of the wife of Rev. Mr. E. W. Pankey. The funeral was solemnized Saturday at Jackson's Temple. She left a husband and five children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Mr. Creasy Ellis and two daughters visited Murfreesboro Saturday.

Misses Ruth and Millie Baker are visiting Dilton.

Miss Mary Covington returned home last week.

GOODLETTSVILLE NOTES.

Goodlettsville school is highly progressing. Miss Katie Mathews has been absent from school for a week or so on account of illness.

Miss Mary Finch spent the latter of the week in Nashville. Rev. Mr. McClendon will have a rally Sunday and Rev. Dr. Lockett will render the service in the afternoon and the people will be entertained by the Jubilee singers.

Mr. Ernest L. Baker, one of the Goodlettsville pupils, has entered Walden University.

Mrs. Martha Payne is very ill. Mrs. Kate Cole has been very ill with the rheumatism.

Miss Mattie Rhoney and her brother have been here visiting relatives. Miss Eunice A. Hendricks enter-
